DELEGATES OFF FOR THE FRAY

UNTERRIFIED DEPART TODAY BY SIERRA TO GO TO ST. LOUIS AND NOMINATE A CANDIDATE.

Curtis P. Inoué, J. L. Coke and T. B. Lyons, delegates to the Democratic National convention, are departing passengers today by the S. S. Sierra for the Mainland. The trio will arrive in San Francisco June 27 and on the following day, leave for St. Louis with the California delegation in the special train that is to be ready for the California and Hawaii delegations. Dr. W. S. Nobilit the remaining delegate to the convention from Hawaii, will be unable to get away today with the other delegates, but he will take passage by the S. S. Korea next Friday and arrive in St. Louis in time to attend the opening of the convention.

J. C. Easton one of the delegates from the island of Hawaii is already on the mainland as is former Justice C. A. Galbraith, one of the alternates from the island of Oahu. Justice Galbraith will attend the convention by virtue of holding the proxy of Senator Palmer P. Woods who will be unable to attend the convention. No other alternate will attend the convention.

The local Democrats will give their departing delegates a rousing send off today at the steamer. The Territorial band will be in attendance and play in honor of the departing delegates. The banner which was used at the Kansas City convention, is to be taken by the delegation. The badges will be ordered today by cable and be ready in San Francisco when the delegation arrives.

The Democrats will not be able to enjoy life in San Francisco the way the Republican delegates did this month. The Democratic delegates will be in San Francisco only one day, so they will not have much opportunity of being entertained by friends in that city. It is expected that the trip across the continent to St. Louis will be very enjoyable. The delegates will be absent about a month and perhaps longer.

No selection of chairman has as yet been made. The general sentiment is in favor of Col. Inoué being selected to that position. He was instrumental in working up the Democratic organization at the recent convention, and, as he was the most prominent figure in the convention, it is urged that the compliment should be given him. There is little doubt but he will be selected as chairman.

It has been suggested by some unkind Republicans that the delegation might add to its tone by hiring the "Naehur-Man" to join forces. He might be permitted to carry the banner for the delegates. He would certainly make quite an effective pose as Executive. His leaky whiskers might also serve as a good vote getter in the Populist sections of the country. The "Naehur-Man" should be added to the delegation by all means.

BATTLED WITH HEAVY GALE

SIERRA ENCOUNTERED VERY BAD WEATHER BETWEEN AUSTRALIA AND PAGO PAGO.

The S. S. Sierra arrived this morning from the Colonies with a good sized list of through passengers. The vessel sighted Oahu about daybreak and was docked before 8 o'clock. She left Sydney June 6. She experienced fair weather and smooth seas, with moderate breezes across the Tasmanian Sea, arriving at Auckland June 10. She sailed from Auckland the same day and on June 11 ran into a very heavy gale from the east-northeast. The gale lasted 30 hours, blowing at intervals with terrific force.

Captain Houdtelle was compelled to slow the ship down to half speed for 16 hours. Some of the railing on the starboard bow was washed away and other minor damage was done by the heavy seas. Several of the sailors and a mess boy were picked up by the waves and washed about the decks, sustaining bruises.

The Sierra arrived at Pago Pago June 14 and sailed the same afternoon. From Pago Pago to Honolulu fair weather with moderate wind was experienced. The Sierra has among her through passengers Sir Tatton Sykes, the famous horseman of the British turf. Sir Tatton is accompanied by Lady Sykes and attendants. Sir Tatton is famous the world over as the owner and breeder of race horses. One of his stables ran second in the Derby this year.

Captain Max de Bathe, H. de Bathe and Captain C. L. Davis are British army officers who are making a tour of the world. One of the de Bathe is said to be the husband of the famous Lily Langtry.

F. N. Buckleby-Johnson is the secretary of the governor general of Australia and is going to London.

On June 15 an enjoyable concert was given by the second cabin passengers. The Sierra sails at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Oceanic wharf. She will take a good sized crowd of passengers, among them being three of the delegates to the Democratic national convention. A number of other well known passengers will depart by the Sierra.

The June number of the Hawaiian Forester and Agriculturist is out, and contains some interesting articles. The leading editorial is on the subject of Hawaii's need of an Agricultural College. The editor calls attention to the need of proper instruction in agriculture and calls attention to many products which might be added to those of the islands by intelligent direction of efforts at farming. There are a number of other articles interesting to agriculturists. The Agriculturist is published by the Board of Agriculture and Forestry and edited by W. M. Giffard.
